

^{UP&L}
Murdock Power
Plant at Hailstone

Purpose: To supply
Electricity to Mines
at Park City & Keetley

See Hailstone
Book in
Dr RR Green
History Collection

PRIVATE PATIENT FEE SCHEDULE

- Based upon McGraw-Hill's Relative Value Study*, this widely recognized method of determining appropriate fees is customized for each physician through use of an individual conversion factor.
- Includes guidelines as to follow-up days for global surgical fees and professional and technical components in pathology and radiology.
- Includes the procedure codes and descriptions with fast search capabilities.

*Relative Values for Physicians, from SysteMetrics/McGraw-Hill.

FEES is a trademark of Forge, Inc.

MS-DOS is a trademark of Microsoft Corporation

Procedure: 62284
Relative	Factor	Fee 1	Follow-up Days
2.60	120.00	312.00	0
Given	Customary	84 Base	—Prevailing—		50th %ile
MAAC	Charge	Charge	75th %ile	50th %ile	MAAC
404.00	0.00	445.00	212.90	300.00	0.00
Calculated	MAAC w/o	Maximum
MAAC	Tax	Allowable
449.45	449.45	212.90
Old Procedure Code: Flag to choose this procedure: Y
CHOICE — F
Exit	Add	Next	Back	Find
Change	Delete	Last	Other

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- A product of National Physicians Network, Inc.
- PC-DOS or MS-DOS compatible - Hard disk required
- Other Operating Systems available upon request
- Useful reports generated to assist in analysis
- Computer support and technical services available
- User friendly - Menu driven
- Loading of physician specific information available
- Four modules available: • Medicine • Surgery
• Radiology • Pathology

MEDICARE ISSUES

- Calculates Maximum Allowable Actual Charges (MAAC).
- Provides Medicare Allowable for each procedure code.
- Prints letters for elective surgery and unnecessary medical services.
- May be used by physicians with base period MAAC and without base period MAAC simultaneously.
- The 1987 Budget Act lets you:
 - change your participation decision through April 1, 1988.
 - recalculate your MAAC using charges to any patient (Medicare or Non-Medicare) during the base period (April, May & June of 1984).